

Mauro Pecchioli

Mauro Pecchioli is the Head of the Operations Centre Systems Infrastructure Section of the Data Systems Infrastructure Division, Department of Engineering at the Operations Centre of the European Space Agency (ESA / ESOC), Darmstadt, Germany.

He has got more than 30 years of professional experience in the mission operations domain, initially focusing on the management and execution of spacecraft operations and later more specifically on the definition and production of ground data systems.