

Nazanin Sharifi

Nazanin Sharifi is a Systems Engineer who works with Northrop Grumman Space Systems as a Systems Architect and Requirements SE applying MBSE to implement Program Requirements for command & telemetry and detailed design on the Protected Tactical SATCOM Prototype Program. Nazanin has worked with Northrop Grumman for 15 years, gaining experience from nano to system of systems level engineering. She is trained in Six Sigma, certified Greenbelt, and an INCOSE member for 10 years. She has been active in promoting STEM events both in INCOSE Chesapeake and LA Chapters, served INCOSE-LA as President (2023-2024), Programs Director (2019-2020) and VP (2021-2022) and is currently the INCOSE-LA Systems Engineering Education Director. Nazanin holds a Bachelor's Degree in Science from Pennsylvania State University and a Certificate on SE Fundamentals and MBSE from Caltech.